For decades, Troy Post 14 has provided more than just a building—it has been a place of connection, support, and belonging. Veterans come here to find camaraderie, share experiences, and access resources that help them navigate life after service. The facility is now in serious need of repair and rehabilitation. Years of wear and limited funding have left them facing structural and maintenance issues that threaten their ability to continue serving those who have given so much for our country. Without immediate improvements, they risk losing this essential space. As the Troy Legion Post 14 supports the needs of the veteran community in the 9th district, this project serves to benefit the public in various different ways by serving an underserved community.
