The Grosse Ile Parkway Bridge, a 150-year-old movable bridge, requires immediate rehabilitation while Wayne County evaluates a full replacement. The Grosse Ile Parkway Bridge project ensures continued access for 75% of Grosse Ile's traffic to the mainland, which is vital for residents, businesses, and emergency services. As the only free bridge to the island, it plays a critical role in daily transportation, especially since the other toll bridge has a very low load capacity. By addressing the bridge's ongoing maintenance challenges and improving its safety, the project will reduce lifecycle repair costs and increase reliability. Furthermore, the bridge's improvement will support local economic activity by providing safer and more efficient transportation, while also enhancing the reliability of emergency response in the area.
